

Holistic and wellness services policy

I am committed to providing the highest quality of care and service to clients. I understand that clients may have additional questions after their appointment and will be happy to help answer those questions.

If a client has additional questions after their wellness appointment or Wegatest, they may contact me by phone or email (Text messages are no longer answered).

However, please note that there will be an additional fee for answering these questions:

- For phone consultations, the fee will be $2 per minute, with a minimum charge of $10.
- For email consultations, the fee will also be a minimum of $15 (for up to 5 questions).

Clients must pay the fee before any additional questions will be answered. I recommend that clients schedule a follow-up appointment if they have a significant number of additional questions or if their questions are complex.

Disclaimer:

As a plant-based nutrition and wellness coach, I am not a medical doctor and do not provide medical advice or treatment. My services are intended to provide information and guidance to help clients achieve their health and wellness goals.

It is important to note that any information provided by me is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease. Clients should always consult with a qualified healthcare professional before making any changes to their diet or exercise routine.

If you experience any adverse effects or symptoms after following any recommendations provided by me, you should discontinue use and seek immediate medical attention. If you have a medical emergency, please call 911 or go to the nearest emergency hospital.

I am committed to providing the highest quality of care and service to each and every one of my clients. I believe that plant-based nutrition and wellness can be a valuable tool in helping clients achieve their health and wellness goals, and I am dedicated to providing the best guidance and support possible.
